ORDER

UPON MOTION in writing on behalf of the Applicant filed January 31, 2014, pursuant to Rule 369 of the Federal Courts Rules for:

1. An Order granting Dimitre Popov permission to act on behalf of and as a representative of the Applicant in these proceedings.
2. An Order for no costs to either party.

3. Leave for an extension of time for the Applicant to serve its Affidavit on the Respondent's solicitor pursuant to Rule 306 of the Federal Courts Rules.

AND UPON reading the material filed and upon being satisfied that the relief sought should be accommodated to some extent so as to facilitate access to the Court's process in a just and most efficient and cost-effective manner;

THIS COURT ORDERS that:

1. This application shall continue as a specially managed proceeding and is referred to the office of the Chief Justice for the appointment of a Case Management Judge.
2. Leave is granted to the Applicant's father, Dimitre Popov to assist the Applicant throughout these proceedings, subject to any further order or direction of the Case Management Judge.
3. The Applicant is granted an extension of time of thirty (30) days from the date of this Order to serve her Rule 306 affidavits and documentary exhibits and file proof of service thereof.
4. The parties shall, within ten (10) days of the date of the appointment of the Case Management Judge, submit a joint proposal for a timetable to govern the remaining steps in the proceeding. In the event the parties cannot agree, each shall submit an independent proposal together with dates and times of mutual availability for a case management teleconference.

5. There is no Order as to costs.
